Madrid, August 31.

ON the 24th Inſtant the Marqueſs de Louville ſet out on his Return to the Court of France, purſuant to Orders from thence, without having been admitted to an Audience of the King. On the 25th, being St. Lewis's Day, the Archbiſhop of Toledo performed with great Solemnity the Ceremony of Baptizing and Confirming the three Infantes Don Philip, Ferdinand, and Charles. On the 26th arrived a Courier, with Advice that the Flota from New Spain was come in Sight of Cadiz: On the 28th in the Night arrived two Gentlemen expreſs, with a certain Account that the ſaid Flota had entred the Port of Cadiz. It conſiſts of 10 Ships commanded by the General Pintado, and of two with which Don Ferdinand Chacon was ſent to fetch what could be recovered out of the former Flota that was loſt in the Canal of Bahama. The Value of the regiſtred Effects brought by this Flota, is computed at 12 Millions of Pieces of Eight, and the unregiſtred is valued at half as much more. Orders are ſent for unlading the Ships with all Expedition, and for levying by way of Indulto for the King's Profit 7 per Cent. on the whole Cargo of the Flota; but not to demand any Indulto of the Effects brought by Don Ferdinand Chacon, in Conſideration of the Loſs ſuffered by the Perſons concerned therein.

Venice, Aug. 28. On the 17th Inſtant arrived a Veſſel from Dalmatia, with Letters from General Emo. They adviſed, that the Captain General Piſani had ſent a Courier with Orders for all the Gallies, Galliots and Brigantines which were in the Ports of Dalmatia to haſten to the Fleet, with 1000 Soldiers of the Regiment of Waldeck. General Emo was gone to Cattaro, there to ſee to the Imbarkation of 2000 other Germans, which were to be ſent to the Fleet for reinforcing the Garriſon of Corfu. Six Tranſports which with three others went under the Convoy of Sig. Gritti, and were ſeparated by a Storm, had rejoyned, and purſued their Voyage towards the Fleet. We learn alſo, that the Morlacks having made Incurſions into the Country belonging to the Turks, had brought off a great Number of Cattle. Some Neapolitan Ships had paſſed by Zara, going to the Coaſt belonging to the Houſe of Auſtria with Troops that are to join the Army in Hungary. The 17th at Night, a Courier who came by the way of Otranto brought Diſpatches from the Captain General, and private Letters of the 3d of this Month, which had the following News: The Turks having taken a View of Corfu, cauſed their Land-Forces to advance, and inveſted it. Having worked ſome Days in making Lines of Circumvallation and Contravallation, they attacked the Poſt of Mount Abraham, which was vigorouſly defended five Days, but was then carried, and afterwards they poſſeſſed themſelves of the Poſt of St. Salvadore. They raiſed on that Eminence two Batteries, with which they began to cannonade the Place, and in the mean time carried on their Works towards the Palliſades. General Schulenbourg having cauſed Collonel Sala to make a Sally with 900 Men, he fell immediately upon the Workmen and put them into Diſorder; and puſhed with ſuch Vigour the Troops which advanced to ſupport them, that he put them to the Rout, and cauſed Part of their Works to be ruined. 'Twas reckoned the Enemy had 3000 Men killed or wounded in this Action, and the Beſieged loſt 300. The Garriſon of the Place conſiſted of 5000 Men, and was to be reinforced by 3000. The Fleet waited only for a favourable Wind to offer Battle to that of the Turks, which had not altered its Station. The Chevalier de Langon, who commands the Pope's Squadron, having deſired a Ship of greater Force than that he was in, the St. Lorenzo Juſtiniano was given him, the Crew of which was put into Corfu, and his own Ship's Company was reinforced by the Men of two ſmall Veſſels, deſigned to be uſed for Fireſhips. We are getting ready with all Expedition a new Convoy of Proviſions and Ammunition, on which will be imbarked 1000 Men that are at the Lido; and two Bomb-Veſſels are fitting out, which which will be ready in a Fortnight. Two thouſand German Soldiers are on the March hither, and will be imbarked as ſoon as poſſible to be ſent to the Fleet.

Paris, Sept. 16. Letters from Malta of the 18th of laſt Month tell us, that by a Veſſel which was arrived there from the Venetian Fleet they had an Account, that Corfu was defended with great Skill and Courage; particularly, that on the 6th the Beſieged made a Sally with 600 Men, beat the Turks from the Eminence of St. Salvadore, nailed their Cannon, and levelled their Works; and that on the 7th they made another Sally with great Succeſs. The Communication between the Place and the Venetian Fleet being open, the Turks found greater Difficulties than they had expected in carrying on the Siege.
